

Our history

1946 The company is founded in Lammhult (Sweden) by Ingvar Svensson. Household utensils are made of thermosetting polymer (bakelite) such as the lemon squeezer in the picture.

1960s The furniture industry is growing rapidly in the area around Lammhult. The first catalogue with our standard range is distributed.

1958 We started manufacturing parts in thermoplastics. One of the first products was feet for the Pyramid chair.

1987 ITAB (now Xano industri AB) buys Ackurat and becomes the first new company in a newly formed industrial group.

1988 The factory in Lammhult is expanded with a completely new production hall.

1989 The tool making workshop in new premises.

1991 The range is expanded by purchasing a number of mould tools from Plastinject and Plast AB Orion in Anderstorp.

1992 The first step outside of Sweden is taken by opening of a sales office in Helsinki (Finland).

1993 Ackurat is introducing its own traveling product specialists.

1995 The range greatly increases through the purchase of a large number of mould tools from Plastunion.

1996 International cooperation begins when an agreement is concluded with a German company.

2001 Brand new and fresh office building is built in Lammhult.

2002 Ackurat exhibits at the Stockholm Furniture Fair for the first time.

2003 We introducing vibration welding of felt on furniture feet. First in the World.

2004 All products are presented on the internet, and our e-commerce starts.

2005 A new high bay warehouse is built in Lammhult.

2006 Ackurat exhibits at Furnica in Poznan (Poland) for the first time.

2007 A strategic decision to work without intermediaries in all of Europe is taken.

2007 The first agreements with furniture manufacturers in the UK.

2007 A sales office is opened in Gdansk (Poland).

2008 Regular presence of product specialists outside of Sweden begins.

2008 Ackurat exhibits at Euroshop in Düsseldorf (Germany) for the first time.

2008 Injection moulding machines are connected digitally.

2010 Warehouse and some manufacturing introduced in Gdansk.

2011 The factory is optimised for a more order driven manufacturing using LEAN.

2011 Ackurat exhibits in Milan (Italy) for the first time.

2013 Ackurat exhibits at Interzum in Cologne (Germany) for the first time.

2014 A strategic decision is made to increase investment in development of unique products.

2015 The business system is replaced to better suit global trade and a digitalised industry.

2016 The first standard products in bioplastics presented.

2017 A charging station for electric cars is installed in Lammhult.

2017 Ackurat was contacted by product developer Alvar Lundgren. It resulted in Ackurat taking over a patent for a product for joining boards. The solution was developed into the product Clixtag, which became Ackurat's first patented product.

2018 Ackurat decides to gradually phase out common plastics in favor of bioplastics.

2019 Ackurat was contacted by aircraft technician Anders Johansson. We ended up buying a piece of equipment from him, for compression moulding of felt caps (XCF).

2022 Exhibiting for the first time at the Design District in Rotterdam, the Netherlands, after two years of tough restrictions due to the pandemic.

2024 we decide to invest in the development of a completely new concept for furniture glides, PIN-CH, which is also registered as a trademark. It's the largest tooling investment in our history.